

Better quality of life, through better packaging, for more people

PRESS RELEASE

WPO collaborates with ProPak in a series of webinars focus on trends and opportunities post Covid-19

It will be a total of 05 webinars, first one in June 24.

June 2020 – WPO (World Packaging Organisation – www.worldpackaging.org) is pleased to announce its partnership with Informa Markets, through the ProPak team, in a series of webinars that will be running over the coming months, commencing June 24.

The webinars will give a truly global overview covering key trends and the hottest topics in the packaging and processing industries in the post-pandemic era. The first in the series takes place on 24 June at 08.00 BST and will look at the Impact and Challenges that COVID-19 is having on the industry. WPO President, Pierre Pienaar, will apply his extensive experience and knowledge to provide insights into these unprecedented and challenging times for the industry.

Future webinars will include a raft of international speakers from across the globe, a who's who from the international processing and packaging industry, to facilitate a thorough examination for the future direction of travel for the sector.

“The WPO is delighted and encouraged to partner with Informa Markets in the joint venture. We will ensure thoughtful and thought-provoking discussions by various packaging and associated leaders in their respective fields. We address and tackle that big question as to what will the packaging landscape present in a post Covid19 world and how will it affect each one of us in a society where we have become so reliant on packaging”, states Pierre.

WPO – World Packaging Organisation is a non-profit, non-governmental, international federation of packaging institutes, associations, federations and other interested parties including corporations and trade associations. For more information, contact WPO at www.worldpackaging.org.
