WPO signs an strategic cooperation agreement with Reed Exhibitions

According to the agreement, Reed Exhibitions is also new WPO Corporate Partner.

May 2021 – WPO (World Packaging Organisation – www.worldpackaging.org) recently announced the signature of an strategic cooperation agreement with Reed Exhibitions (China) (www.reedexhibitions.com) which purpose is “to expand industry network to drive the growth and the development of the packaging industry”. The agreement seeks to strengthen PackWorld, Reed Exhibitions’ shows portfolio, in China. This portfolio includes SinoCorrugated, SinoFoldingCarton, SinoFlexPack, sinoPaper, InMat, Packon and DPrint Expo).

“We are very proud to be able to help Reed Exhibitions to engage the professionals in the international packaging industry better, understand the market trends and needs in order to provide the best platform for the packaging communities”, celebrates WPO President, Pierre Pienaar.

WPO believes this agreement is an excellent opportunity to enhance packaging expertise through expanding its international education and networking programs, including conferences, innovative packaging zone, packaging awards, packaging knowledge and network through Reed Exhibitions events.
