About WPO

The World Packaging Organisation is a non-profit, non-governmental, international federation of over 60 National Packaging Institutes and Associations, 4 Regional Packaging Federations and other interested parties including corporations and trade associations.

Founded September 6, 1968 in Tokyo by visionary leaders from the global packaging community, the purposes of the Organisation aim to:

- Encourage the development of packaging technology, science and engineering;
- Contribute to the development of international trade; and
- Stimulate education and training in packaging.

WPO secretariat is based in Vienna, Austria, and WPO activities happen at an international level through 2 meetings per year hosted by its National Packaging Institutes and Association members. Also, WPO attends different tradeshow and packaging conferences, congresses and seminars around the world.

Primary activities of WPO today are:

- Education – to promote education through an international education program,
- Innovation – to support packaging innovation internationally through the WorldStar Packaging Awards,
- Knowledge & Information – releasing White Papers and WPO News, Social Media, Conferences and by attending tradeshow around the world
- Saving Food – supporting the Save Food Initiative from FAO I Messe Dusseldorf
- Sustainability – addressing sustainability and building knowledge and references
- Networking – bringing together the worldwide packaging community through WPO members, international activities during trade shows and congresses
